Biking Trip:

By: Cora

Last Wednesday a brave group of cyclists decided to bike through the enormous mountains between Camp Wilvaken and Fitch Bay. Natacha, Chloée, Eliza, Mia, Emily, Ethan, Bradon, Ines, Seb, Cora and Sam packed a lodge amount of peanut butter-jelly sandwiches and took off before lunch. The sun was beaming down, making us sweat and suffer. But we pushed through! We ended up going a total amount of 22000 meters. You think that's not a lot? Well my dear, you are mistaken! The steep slopes and the noon heat pushed our limits. Only ice cream and jumping in the lake could cure our exhaustion. In the end we were very proud to have managed this challenge and are looking forward to our next trip!

Waking up at 7:30 definitely wasn't the highlight of the trip, but everyone's excitement quickly made up for it. Loading on everything to the van and off we were. Day one was very relaxing, we did a bit of canoeing and arrived at our first camp site. The waves crashing along the beach while the sun was setting was an end to a perfect day. Day two was canoeing to our second camp site and being against the waves made it almost impossible, but singing Beyoncé got us through it. Everyone gathered around the fire and shared good stories. The mosquitos made going outside a warzone, constantly having to re-apply bug spray. Day 3 was by far the most challenging. Starting off with canoeing followed by portage which was harder than it seemed. Following the long painful portage we hiked up to see a stunning waterfall. Overall I am so happy I went on this trip, I bonded with people I never thought I would.

Will K's math problems:

$$\begin{aligned}56 + 15 &= \\178 - 89 &= \\7(6+10) &= \\76 \times 54 &= \\4(21+(75-21)\times 13) - 34 &= \end{aligned}$$

Overheard at Wilvaken:

"Non, mais..."
- Lodge

"We gave a fish a funeral"
- Island

"The mushrooms look sad"
- Jamaica

Fortune with the stars

Balance: J'ai entendu dire que tu as beaucoup de vêtements sale partout autour de toi. Fais attention pour pas que ton amoureux les trouve. Il pourrait se sauver à cause de l'odeur ou bien t'adorer. Quel préfères-tu?

Virgo: Fireplaces including campfires are very hot so be careful not to touch them or you just might get burned.

Cancer: Le soleil est très puissant alors bois de l'eau pour ne pas halluciner et manger des champignons. Ils ne te feront pas rétrécir ni agrandir dans cette histoire.

Aquarius: The stars predict that you will have the ability to control the thunderstorms this week. Be gentle and kind and the storms will not appear in our weather forecast!

Taureau: Est-ce que tu sais vraiment comment te balancer? Tu vas toujours tout croire.

Leo: This week you will have the ability to see the future. You will be able to predict the secretive love interests around camp, feel the feelings that others feel and see the future of camp food. Make sure to use your gift wisely.

Sagitaire: Tu vas te retrouver dans les cascades et sur la mer dans un voilier. Assure-toi d'avoir un expert avec toi parce qu'une baleine (moby dick) pourrait se trouver sur ton chemin.

Gemini: Sneaky, sneaky, sneaky. Gemini what are you up to this week? I see fox like actions in your own. Be careful or amigo just might bite you on the bum!

Scorpion: Tes mouvements de danse ne sont plus top! Tu ne peux plus impressionner Amigo.

Capricorn: You have the music inside of you! Pick up a guitar this week and sing to the trees, wind and water. Maybe if you sing loud enough mother nature will hear you and surprise you with a visit!

Bélier: Ne mange pas trop de desserts, tu vas exploser!

Pisces: * Scary Piano Music * be careful on your trip to the bathrooms at night! The stars predict animals following you all around camp especially raccoons. Maybe you could be brave and give rocky a lesson? Save us all and be safe!

Une histoire de princesse:

By: Le prince

Il était une fois un jeune prince et une jeune princesse. One day the two decide to off on an adventure. They took with them 7 little gnomes and an elf. Avec nos spatules, fourchettes et sac-à-dos, nous commençons à gravir la montagne. After a long walk of whining and complain from the 7 gnomes, we finaly made it to the top. "WOW! What a nice view!" said the overly enthusiastic prince. "Ok, à la prochaine montagne" dit la princesse. La princesse devant, quelques gnomes, le luntin au centre, quelques gnomes et le prince à l'arrière portant un sac-à dos faisant le double de sa taille. Tout ensemble, one two, onw two, oups, un gnome tombe. One, two, one, two, un autre gnome tombe. "Ben voyons donc!" Dragging our feet through the mud with blood on our faces and bruised knees, we managed to survive to horrors of the forest. Almost touching the sky, we could see over the horizon. Des larmes coolant sur nos joues et le sourire aux lèvres, nous nous réjouissons de notre parcours pédestre.

Le carrousel tant réussi!

By: Alexia et Laurence

En cette belle journée ensoleillé, tout le camp s'est réuni à l'écurie à la suite de l'invitation du barn staff pour regarder le super carrousel! C'était la plus belle heure de notre vie. Même avec beaucoup d'imprévués, le carrousel s'est très bien déroulé grâce au talent de nos merveilleux cavaliers. Selon Eli, c'était sooo cool et selon Érika c'était magique! Les chevaux étaient tous en harmonie et les cavaliers ont eu beaucoup de plaisir à le faire. Selon Naomie, le match des couleurs (bleu et rouge) était super cuuuute. On a bien hâte de voir le prochain horse show qui sera composé de sauts à obstacles! (demander une lecture à haute voix de Laurence pour ressentir toutes les émotions dans ce merveilleux chef d'oeuvre)
